

The Old City of Jerusalem Revitalisation Programme Achievements

Implementation and Disbursement
1995-2013

39,786,239$

Restoration and Rehabilitation of Historic Buildings in the Old Cities of Jerusalem and Nablus

36,522,325$

A. Housing Renewal of Residential Buildings

19,156,507$

276 Projects

602 Families

Job Creation
108,500 Days

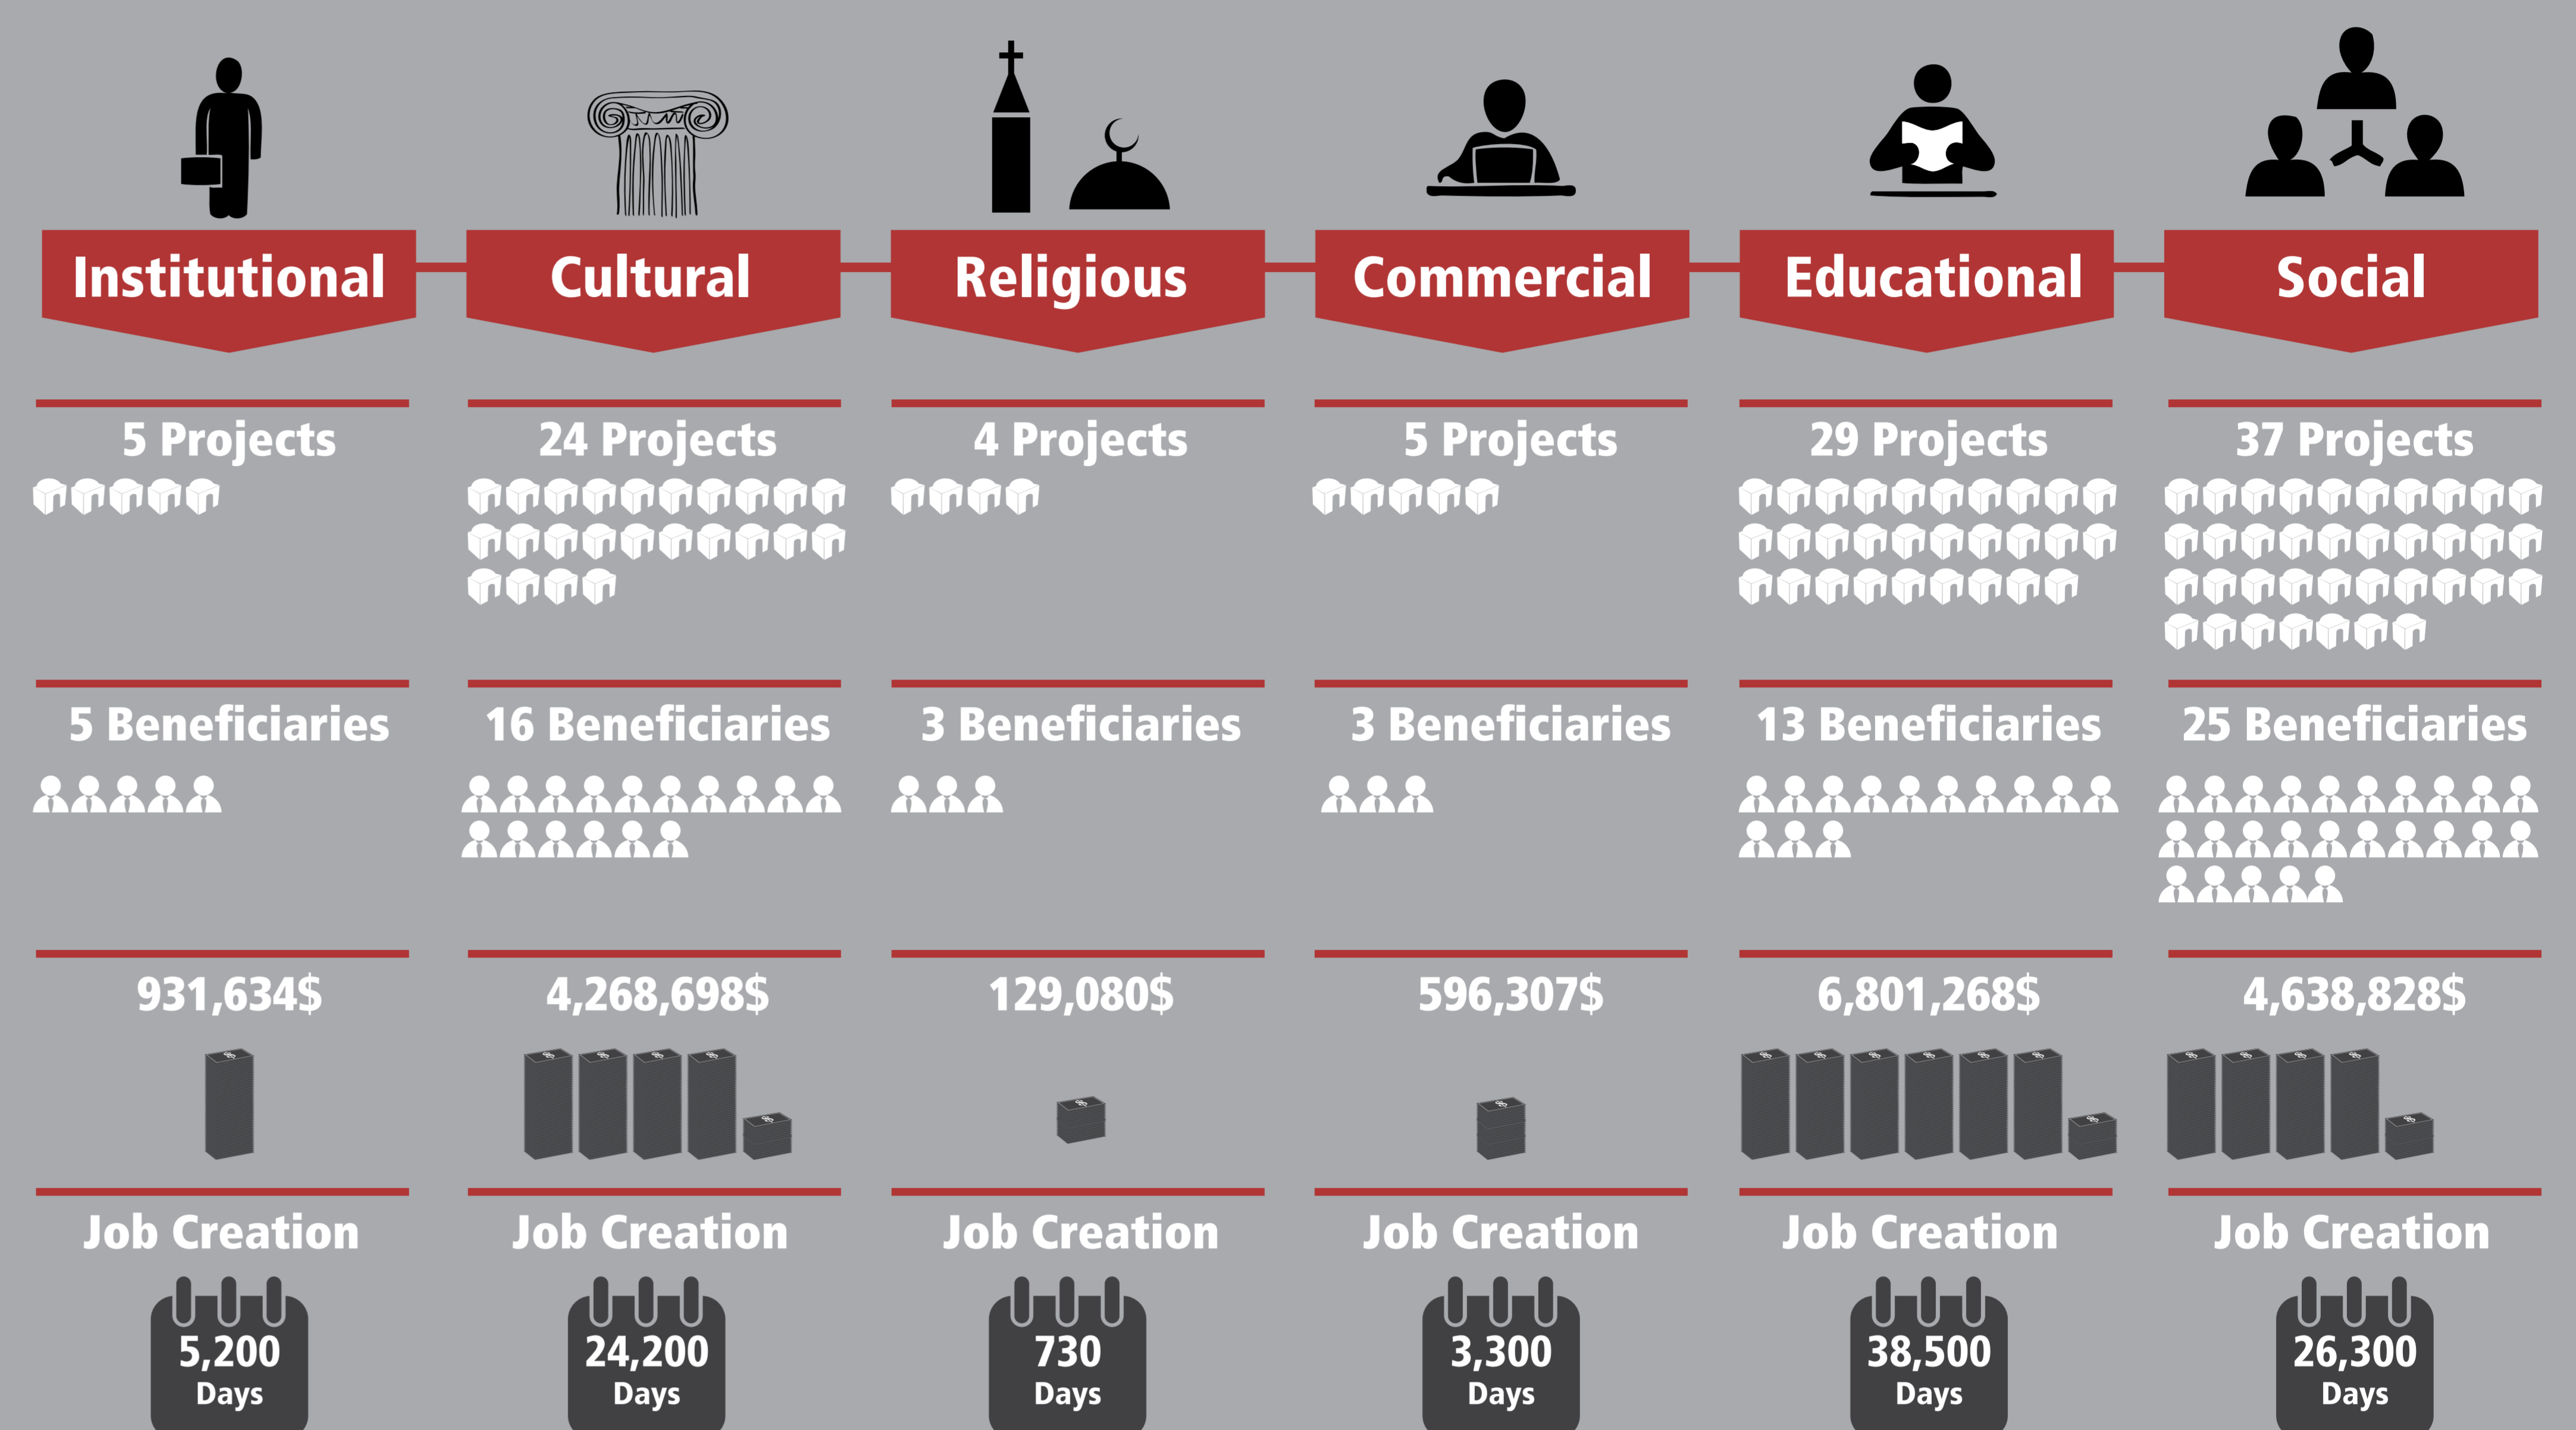

B. Adaptive Reuse of Historic Building

17,365,818$

104

65

98,230
Job Creation

Information and Publication Unit
(Studies, Research and GIS Database)

1,123,692$

Revitalization Plan For Old City of Jerusalem published
(Arabic in 2002 , English in 2004)

Revitalization Plan for the Old City of Nablus published in Arabic and English 2012/2013

Number of books and booklets have been published in the field of architectural heritage in Jerusalem documenting monuments and special historic buildings
15 booklets
7 books

Database (GIS) established for both old cities of Jerusalem and Nablus

Community Outreach Program

665,206$

A wide range of community awareness activities conducted during the last years in addition to events, workshops, seminars, and publications to raise the awareness of the importance of architectural heritage

Training and Capacity Building

416,890$

28 Architects and Engineers trained through an internship programme (6 months programme) in addition to conducting courses and seminars relevant to preservation of architectural heritage

12 Jerusalemite and Nablusi youth completed an apprenticeship programme for craftsmen

Institute for Preservation of Architectural Heritage in Jerusalem

1,058,126$

PHASE 1

Completion of the first Phase of the Project to establish an Institute for conservation of Architectural Heritage where around 171 Architects and Engineers joined 15 courses conducted through the Institute.

PHASE 2

Implementing the 2nd phase of the Project were short course conducted and the first core course in Nablus completed (14 Architects and Engineers) , 12 Jerusalemite youth completed an apprenticeship programme for craftsmen , number of core courses and intensive short courses planned for 2013/2014

